

NAGOYA UNIVERSITY

First CALE - SOAS Asian Comparative Legal Studies Workshop
10 and 15 September 2014, SOAS, University of London
Programme

Welcome and Sessions 1 and 2
10 September, 2014, 13:00 – 17:45
Venue: V201 (Vernon Square Campus)

Welcome: Professor Martin Lau, SOAS and Professor Aikyo, CALE, Nagoya University
Professor Makino, CALE, Nagoya University to speak on CALE's Programme of Legal Research,
Education and Legal Reforms in Partner Countries

Session 1 Studies on constitutional review in Southeast Asian Countries – developments and challenges

Chair: Mr Ernest Caldwell

1. The question of constitutional review in the 2013 Constitutional amendment of Vietnam, Professor Aikyo, Vice president of Nagoya University
2. Possibilities and Limits of Constitutional Review in the Politically Planned Democratic Transition – the cases of Cambodia and Myanmar, Professor Teilee Kuong, CALE, Nagoya University

Session 2 Comparative Succession Law in Asian Countries

Chair: Professor Martin Lau, SOAS

1. Recent Movements of Japanese Family Law and Succession Law in Comparative Perspective, Professor Hiroko Ito, CALE, Nagoya University
2. Cross-border Succession in Japan, Korea and China and Conflict of Laws Issues, Professor Eonsuk Kim, CALE, Nagoya University
3. 'Chinese wills' in the Laws of Colonial Hong Kong, Professor Carol Tan, SOAS

Session 3

15 September, 2014, 13:00 – 16:00
Venue: B111 (Brunei Gallery Building, Main Campus)

Session 3 Studies on Islamic Law

Chair: Professor Martin Lau

Discussant: Professor Mashood Baderin, SOAS

1. Status of Islamic law in Indonesian state law, Professor Shimada, CALE, Nagoya University
2. Legal (Dis)integration: Examining the Status of Islamic Law in Indonesian Human Rights Law, Al Khanif, SOAS
3. Modern Islamic Family Law from Gender Perspective, Professor Kuwahara, Fukuyama City University
4. Islamic law in the Privy Council, Mr Ian Edge, SOAS