

2021 CALE Annual Conference

Citizenship (Nationality) Struggles in the 21 Century and its Social Costs: Asian and Global Trends.

Including Reflections of COVID-19 impact on Vulnerable Groups

Day 1: January 28 (Thursday) 2021, 11:00 – 13:00 (Japan)

Day 2: January 29 (Friday) 2021, 11:00 – 13:00 (Japan)

Day 1: Perspectives from Taiwan, Vietnam, Myanmar, and Eurasia

Azizbek Ashurov

Nansen Refugee Award Winner 2019, Human Rights Lawyer, FVLWB, Coordinator, Central Asian Network on Statelessness

Introductory Notes

Kaoru Obata

Professor, GSL, Nagoya University

Introductory Notes

Aziz Ismatov

MODERATOR

Assistant Professor, CALE, Nagoya University

Vanessa Ruget

Professor, Salem State University

Labor Migration, Transnationalism and Citizenship: the case of Kyrgyz labor migrants to Russia

Susan Kneebone

Professorial Fellow/Senior Associate, Asian Law Centre, Affiliate, McMullin Statelessness Centre, MLS, University of Melbourne

Instrumental nationality and marriage migration to Taiwan: a gendered and hierarchal approach

Nyi Nyi Kyaw

Independent Researcher/Associate, Asia Research Institute, National University of Singapore /Sydney Southeast Asia Centre

Illegal migrants and reckless citizens across porous borders securitizing the COVID-19 pandemic in Myanmar

Chau Xuan Hoang

Rector, Northern College of Law under MoJ of Vietnam

Situation of stateless persons in Vietnam during COVID-19 pandemic

Venue: Via Zoom Videoconferencing System

Organized by: Nagoya University Graduate School of Law (GSL), and Center for Asian Legal Exchange (CALE)

Supported by: JSPS Core-to-Core Program: Asia-Africa Science Platforms “Advancing Research in Asian Constitutionalism – Establishing a Transnational Research Network to Promote Human Rights and Legal System”

Language: English

Details: <https://nuss.nagoya-u.ac.jp/s/6PjpkWkrdCJgwKF>

Please register from here:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZApdeqtqDkpHNc679IA2NWyljA7mcL7yJVC>

2021 CALE Annual Conference

Citizenship (Nationality) Struggles in the 21 Century and its Social Costs: Asian and Global Trends.

Including Reflections of COVID-19 impact on Vulnerable Groups

Day 1: January 28 (Thursday) 2021, 11:00 – 13:00 (Japan)

Day 2: January 29 (Friday) 2021, 11:00 – 13:00 (Japan)

Day 2: Perspectives from India, Nepal, Japan, and Eurasia

Giorgio Fabio Colombo

MODERATOR

Professor, GSL, Nagoya University

Deirdre Brennan

Research Assistant, PhD Candidate, McMullin Statelessness Centre, MLS, University of Melbourne

Campaigning against gender discriminatory laws in Nepal: Feminist care ethics of activism

Shuvro Sarker

Assistant Professor, Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur

Vulnerable Chakma refugees in India and their quest for Indian citizenship

Dai Yokomizo

Professor, GSL, Nagoya University

Stateless persons in Japan: what makes them stateless and vulnerable?

Aziz Ismatov

Assistant Professor, CALE, Nagoya University

Clumsy border demarcation, undocumented mixed marriage, and stateless trans-border spouses in Central Asian enclaves

Akira Fujimoto

Professor, GSL/ Director, CALE, Nagoya University.

Closing Remarks

Venue: Via Zoom Videoconferencing System

Organized by: Nagoya University Graduate School of Law (GSL), and Center for Asian Legal Exchange (CALE)

Supported by: JSPS Core-to-Core Program: Asia-Africa Science Platforms “Advancing Research in Asian Constitutionalism – Establishing a Transnational Research Network to Promote Human Rights and Legal System”

Language: English

Details: <https://nuss.nagoya-u.ac.jp/s/6PjpkWkrdCJgwKF>

Please register from here:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZApdeqtqDkpHNc679IA2NWyljA7mcL7yJVC>