Title: 'New Initiatives of Uzbekistan on Human Rights' (30 min)
Q/A (20 min)

The UN and Uzbekistan have a nearly 30-year history of cooperation. Uzbekistan became a member of the UN on March 2, 1992. Participation of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Sh. M. Mirziyoyev at the most recent 75th anniversary session of the UN General Assembly, as well as his initiatives within the human rights domain marked a significant event in the history of Uzbekistan-UN relationships. In his lecture, Professor Saidov will offer broader perspectives of Uzbekistan's recent progress and new initiatives on human rights.

Akmal SAIDOV (D.Sc., the Institute of State and Law (Moscow) First Deputy Speaker of the Legislative Chamber of the Parliament of Uzbekistan and Vice-President of the Executive Committee of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, Director of the National Center for Human Rights, Member of the Sub-Committee on Finance of the Inter-Parliamentary Union.
